CELEBRATING 100 YEARS OF THE CHARTERED INSTITUTE OF ARBITRATORS

"ARBITRATING IN NORTH AMERICA - NOW AND TOMORROW" CONFERENCE

Los Angeles, 11 June 2015 at 8:30 am

Venue: University of California, Los Angeles School of Law, 385 Charles E.
Young Drive, Los Angeles, CA, 90095

In celebration of the Centenary of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, the North American Branch (NAB) presents a one day conference focusing on the challenges of arbitrating in North America.

Who Should Attend: Dispute resolution professionals including practitioners, arbitrators, academics, forensic investigators, experts, accountancy firms, domestic and international arbitration institution representatives and anyone interested in arbitration in North America should attend this conference.

Cost: The conference is free to existing members of the NAB, free for those registered to attend the NAB's associated training programs that follow this conference on June 12-14, 2015, free to UCLA law students and a cost $35 for all others in attendance.

Program: The conference features dynamic speakers from across North America, addressing topics including status of international commercial arbitration in North America, the common law/civil law divide in arbitration, practical pointers on how to arbitrate in California and various emerging trends in North American arbitrations. The keynote speaker for the conference will be the President of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, Charles Brown.
